

The Life of Francis Bacon

Wednesday 1st July 2009
Sainsbury Centre for Visual Arts

5pm - 5.30pm and 5.30pm - 6pm guided tour
Performance 6.30pm - 8pm

An exciting evening of live theatre in the stunning surroundings of the Sainsbury Centre. Pip Utton's portrayal of Francis Bacon brings to life one of the most acclaimed artists of the 20th century. A colourful one-man show reveals the life of an artist reputed for his gambling, drinking and destroying his own paintings.

The Sainsbury Centre is fortunate in having one of the best collections of early work by Francis Bacon. Book for a friendly and informal tour or explore with friends.

Email: scva@uea.ac.uk Tel: 01603 593199

Tour £1.00, concessions £0.50
Performance £8.50, concessions £7.50

For a full programme of South Norfolk Festival of the Arts events visit www.south-norfolk.gov.uk/festival