- If an error is made in the payment of your Direct Debit by South Norfolk Council or your bank or building society you are entitled to a full and immediate refund of the amount paid from your bank or building society
- If you receive a refund you are not entitled to, you must pay it back when South Norfolk Council asks you to
- You can cancel a Direct Debit at any time by simply contacting your bank or building society. Written confirmation may be required. Please also notify us

Privacy Notice

South Norfolk Council takes your privacy very seriously. Under data protection legislation we lawfully process your personal information as a public authority.

What we do with your data

We need some personal information so we can send accurate Non-Domestic Rate bills to customers and collect the right amount considering any reliefs or exemptions which they may be entitled to. We will keep your data in accordance with our Data Retention Policy (available on our website).

What are your rights?

Under data protection law you have the right to request access to, rectification, restriction or objection to the processing of your personal data, as detailed in our Privacy Policy (available on our website).

You can contact our Data Protection Officer at: right2know@s-norfolk.gov.uk or telephone 01508 533943. You also have the right to lodge a complaint with the regulator, the Information Commissioners Office (ICO).

What are the consequences of not providing data?

Non-domestic Rates are administered under statutory provisions. If data is not provided we may be unable to send an accurate bill and entitlement to reductions may be lost.

Data sharing

Data is shared within the Council with the Planning Department, Environmental Services team, Economic Development, Emergency Planning, Reception and Financial Services teams to carry out their statutory duty. We will not use your data for marketing purposes unless you consent to it. We do not pass your details on to third parties unless the Council is lawfully able to do so for the prevention and detection of crime and fraud, or for the collection of taxes. Data may also be lawfully shared externally including with Enforcement Agents, Norfolk Trading Standards, Companies assisting in reviewing Non-Domestic Rates reliefs and Tracing Agents.
